Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action is all weak states of the stomach, accomposited by indigestion or dyspepsia as well is in all billous or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases "where there is loss if flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system. of the strength and system.

Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by recumpost.

You can't afford to accept a secret nestrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known compostion, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

SUICIDE OF A BANKER. John W. Castles, president of the Union Trust Company, at 80 Broadway, New York, committed suicide late yesterday afternoon at Grand Union Hotel by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been ill for several months and was suffering from nervous prostration as a result of overwork.

Mr. Castles was elected president of the Union Trust Company in December, 1908, and assumed the responsibilities of his position early in January, after he severed his connection with the Guarsuty Trust Company.

The panic was at that time only a thing of recent passing, and Mr. Castles found a heavy load of work awaiting him. As a result of this heavy work he soffered in health and was taken ill in February.
In 1893 he became president of the Hibernia National Bank, a consolidation of several of New Orleans' leading banks. W. P. Brown and other wealthy men of the south then started and organized what was to be the largest trust company south of Mason and Dixons line, and they elected Mr. Castles to its leadership. From that time on he became known as the ablest banker in the south. A few years later he made the sequeintance of George J. Williams, president of the Ohemical National Bonk, and in 1904. when the new president for theGuaranty Trust, its deposits rose from $34,000,000 to about $70,000,000. In December 1908, after the panic, Mr. Castles de-cided to resign from the Guaranty Trust and it was then rumored that he would become head of the Metropolitan system E. H. Harriman and George F. Baker went into the Guaranty Trust after Mr. Castles' resignation, and on the Monday following his resignation as head of the Guaranty, December 16, he was elected as president of the Union Trust Company, to succeed the late Edward King.

SUTION'S BODY EXHUMED.

When the body of Lieut James N. Sutton, jr., the young marine officer who met his death about two years ago at Aunapolis, was exhumed a Arlington cemetrry yesterdey afternoon, an autopsy performed by physicians representing the Navy Department and young Sutiou's mother, disclused the feet that no bones were broken, although a contusion was found over the right eye.

It had been Mrs. Satton's contention that her son's arm had been broken in toe fight which preceded his death, and that this being the case, the shot which ended his life could not have been self-

Present at the grave when the body was dislaterred were Mrs. Sutton, several friends, her attorneys, several sur-geons and a number of newspeper men. Mrs. Satton was the first person to look upon the face of her dead son when the casket was opened.

The attorneys for Mrs. Sutton wanted to take away the scalp to use it as evidence and also take some photographs of the body, but the Navy Department officials refused to allow the requests.

After the autopsy had been completed the body was placed in a new coffia provided by the government, and was rein-terred in the same grave after the ground had been consecrated by Rev. Father Alonzo Olds, of St. Augustin's Catholic Church, Washington,

EXPENSES OF NEW YORK. The provisional budget for the government of New York city in 1910 will reach the stupendous sum of $200,000,-000. The total amount of the estimates recieved so far by the board of estimates aggregates $183,000,000. This does not include the estimates of several of the most important city departments. When their estimates are received the provisional budget will easily amount to $200,000,000, if not a larger sum.

The final budget for 1909, as adopted by the board of estimates and the board of alderman, was $156,000,000. This was an increase of $13,000,000 over 1908. On the same ratio, the experts figure that the increase for 1910 will be at least $20,000,000, and the final budget will be about $175,000,000

The magnitude of the figures will be apparent when it is remembered that less than 25 years ago the administration of the United S sies government, exclusive of pension disbursments, involved an expenditure of public funds of less than $178,000,000 Of this year's increase $17,000,000 is chargeable to salary in-
